

Why we are more than just Real Estate Company

1. Awaken your inner spirit for purpose,....Not just another real estate company

Our Mission: Bringing balance back to the real estate market and fair market pricing.

Being kind to people, looking into their hearts, not just their pocketbooks, really helping them step by step, making sure they achieve “their” desired outcomes and dreams. Our Job “thinking outside the box” We are building long term relationships in the marketplace, staying in contact with past, present, and future buyers. As we have discovered they are our best source of referrals. With our Global cutting edge Marketing, Contact Manager, auto responding newsletters, drip marketing campaigns and ongoing current events, delivering Personal Virtual assistants with the use of video, and much much more... You will quickly discover that our new platform as we move Realty4corners International into the future as a global company, this will all come into your success as an agent and a communicator in the Real Estate Marketplace. Though the use of, meeting in web conference rooms using video, etc... You will stay on top of your “A” game and expand your influence, this is very important when you’re working with a global client. This helps build trust and saves you time in building that initial report with your clients. In our fast paced world we don’t want to lose missed opportunities due to time factors and long distance...we want to stay in tune with the current culture and yet not leave others behind. This is simple and very streamlined, however; takes a 90 day commitment to intertwine into this new real estate platform.

2. Grow your real estate business with us as we help support the "Kingdom Mandate"

What does that mean? We are a tithing company we give the first 10% of our increase to our local church in helping them spread the good news. WHY? We want to be a company that stays under the covering of GODS Grace, protection, correction-this is a big one as we are all growing at different levels and facing new challenges daily; “We” as a team need to embrace change and recognize challenges, what appears to be challenging when your under a good covering will always lead to a breakthrough and is often an invitation for a breakthrough and Miracle. Let’s not run from it, let’s learn how to embrace, not be quick to judge, and work in love with corrections and challenges as they arise. With all this we want this to lead wealth creation that is not all about money but wellness and life abundantly including greater prosperity for our families and future generations, kids and grand kids.

3. We are a Global company advertising worldwide and working with the most advanced cutting edge technology that has only begun to hit the marketplace, always moving, changing and getting ahead of our competition.
4. We will not disappoint you; give us your 90 day commitment!
